This will probably be my last communication with you as I no longer have anything to do with the Alvord 287 JV. As I stated on the phone to you yesterday, I closed out the existing bank account by sending one or two checks to Mike Ferguson, made payable to the Alvord 287 Joint Venture. The final check, I believe, was a bank draft made payable to the JV for the small remaining balance. I turned all records including bank data over to Mike Ferguson. I called him and he said he'd get copies of the checks to you. I am replying to your email, this one time, solely as a courtesy to you. Any further information you need should be directed to Mike Ferguson.
